CRAZY QUILTERS GUILD NEWSLETTER - January, 2019

Susan Keller, Editor

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - By Vicki Nardone

For me, this time of year is great for reflecting, appreciating, and planning for next year.

I'd like to start by thanking Karen Sweet and Ann Davis for their hard work on the holiday party, which I hope you will agree was great fun.

I'd also like to thank Susan Keller for all her work publishing the newsletter these past few years and wish her well in her new endeavors. I sure would be grateful if someone would step up and offer to take over this job 😊😊👍

Ann Davis has a lovely program planned for us in January so I look forward to seeing all of you there.

Till then, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

PHILANTHROPY- By Ann Ainsworth

We delivered your generous donations to the Orangewood Foundation to help make a glorious holiday for the Orange County youth they serve. Your gifts of numerous “Wish List” items included kitchenware, household goods, toiletries, gift cards, backpacks, art supplies, and of course, our beautiful quilts for all ages.

This time there were 26 quilts and blankets as well as 6 themed quilts to match an accompanying book. Nancy Allen and I made coordinated drawstring bags to enclose the quilt and the book together so they did not get separated.

Thanks to all of the numerous hours and funds that you all contributed to let these children know that you care.

Have a Joyous and Peaceful Holiday.

The following information provided by Ruth Bailey:

Found on the FabMo.Org website, a MountainView store that sells samples and snips of designer fabrics.

I just got this information about an interesting show at LACMA (Los Angeles County Museum of Art). Thought some of our members might be interested.

Quilts have landed at LACMA! We just opened a show called outliers and American vanguard art and there is almost an entire room of quilts that you must see next time you are here.

Crazy Quilters' Meetings are held the 2nd
