Hi Vicky,

Thanks for taking the time to speak to me today. I am forwarding you the Handi Quilter Little Foot Quilting Frame information. This has been lightly used and in perfect condition. This is not assembled but I do have the instructions to assemble it. The website I used has a lot of information and videos on their site. <https://www.sewingmachinesplus.com>.

We are moving to Texas and I need to find a home for it hopefully by the end of December or early January. I got a deal on it from Sew Vac in Long Beach and paid $800. I would entertain an amount of $300/or best reasonable offer.

Safe travels,
